

Eagle Point Social Committee Regular meeting
December 6, 2006

President Rae McKee opened the meeting at 2:30 pm. The secretary reported there was no quorum.

Carol Stowe reported on the new banking. Our account has been moved from Wachovia Bank to Charlotte State Bank (same one used by the Eagle Point Board) They will give us free checking. Checks will be duplicate. Carol is to sign for the petty cash. There was no other treasures report.

Parade directors will be Millie & Vinnie Flynn and Blue Heron Pines representatives will do all judging. The officers decided to give a prize for the carts to encourage new people to enter and also decorate. The prizes will be $20-First, $10 second-and $5 for third. Marilyn will get volunteers for refreshments---Apple cider, cookies, coffee.

Don Steward reported on the lighting for Eagle Point. There will be no lighting or sound on the pond this year.

The bulletin board was discussed-the need to enlarge it and to clean it up.

The dropped ceilings and paint has been completed in the mens and ladies restrooms.

Discussion on the kitchen—each group will take a walk-through each time we have an affair and the kitchen must be left clean and no food is to be left in the refrigerator. Floors are to be mopped and everything to be put in its place.

Karen Roberts is to head up getting estimates for redoing
And get an approximate cost.

Opal Harms reported on Shuffle board and that River Haven will come again this coming year. Only had 3 for horse shoes for last week and only 4 this week. Need more to participating. Bowling is not doing well and needs more to join in. Reported we needed to recover the canvas and would get a cost for this.

There will be no mens golf in 2006.

Ken Roberts has cleaned out the medicine closet and rearranged it.
